

SKILLS

- Extensive teaching and training experience in academic environments, as an instructional designer and as a facilitator for various modalities including Instructor Led, Web-Based/Computer-Based, Project-Based, Blended, and Instructional Systems Design
- Adept with performing needs analysis, curriculum/program development and implementation, assessment, evaluation, project management, coaching, and facilitation
- Proficient in Adobe Creative Cloud (Illustrator, Photoshop, Audition, Premiere, After Effects, and InDesign, variety of Learning Management Systems (Canvas, D2L, Moodle and others), Camtasia, Adobe Captivate, Articulate Storyline, and Trivantis Lectora

WORK EXPERIENCE

National University
Senior Instructional Designer

San Diego, CA
2018 – Present

- Provide clear recommendations for interface design, instruction sequencing, assessment utilization, and eLearning interactions
- Develop and teach faculty and staff on the effective use of web-based resources, tools and multimedia technologies to implement an efficient online delivery
- Typical course load is approximately double that of colleagues because of quality of work and timeliness

Miami University of Ohio
Instructional Designer

Oxford, OH
2017 – Present

- Empathetically work with Subject Matter Experts to deliver superior online education for top-rated online college in Ohio
- Primary driver for development of sustainability course for incoming freshmen students
- Lone instructional designer for new micro-credential courses

K12.com
Director Training & Development

Herndon, VA
2015 – 2017

- Produced national training solutions for Operations Team's new hires
- Provided instructional design support, emphasizing online and blended course design
- Developed text-based, graphic and digital content, including interactive learning objects

AlvaEDU
Vice President of Course Development

Cincinnati, OH
2013 – 2015

- Hired by the inventor of Lectora, ultimately serving as project manager and general manager for company's Cincinnati office
- Designed and developed engaging and effective technology-based instructional and course materials that were functional, intuitive, and consistent with sound instructional design principles in collaboration with team members

Xavier University
Instructional Designer

Cincinnati, OH
2012 – 2013

- Advised faculty in improved instructional delivery: including strategic planning, student assessment, content development, instructional materials design and production, evaluation of delivery methods, test design, and methods assessment
- Provided design, training and assistance services to faculty on blended, online learning, and instructional applications; oriented students to applicable instructional materials, equipment and training; designed face-to-face and online courses and documentation

College of Mount Saint Joseph
Instructional Designer

Cincinnati, OH
2012 – 2013

- Assisted in the development of improved instructional delivery including initial online learning endeavor with a concentration in recent technological advances
- Trained faculty on a variety of facilitation vehicles, designed instruction and assessments, online training courses and documentation

National Heritage Academy
Elementary Teacher/Math Specialist

Cincinnati, OH
2005 – 2012

- Faculty member who eventually oversaw teachers for grades K– 8, coaching based on live observations and lesson plan review
- Worked closely with team of teachers to ensure all avenues of the curriculum were effectively created and met, with objectives that were tailored to individual student needs

EDUCATION

Northcentral University
Doctor of Philosophy in Education (Ph.D.) in Instructional Design for Online Learning, (ABD)

Scottsdale, AZ

Capella University
Master of Science in Education (M.Ed.) in Instructional Design for Online Learning

Minneapolis, MN

Wright State University
Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Elementary Education (1-8)

Dayton, OH